

Extension of submission deadline for JSWE-IDEA Water Environment International Exchange Award

The submission deadline for JSWE-IDEA Water Environment International Exchange Award has been extended to December 12, 2016.

The application will be reviewed strictly by Committee on Overseas Member Invitation Program, and the results will be notified to the applicant.

1. Requirements for application

Candidate applicant must be a member of JSWE (Regular member or International associate member), and registered presenter of the 51th annual conference of JSWE.

2. Extended submission deadline

December 12, 2016

3. Applicants must send following documents to the committee.

All documents must be in English or in Japanese.

- 1) Short CV
- 2) List of publications and copies of three most important publications
- 3) Title and registration No. of presentation at the conference